The screenshot shows the ORF Science Channel website interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with links for 'Fernsehen', 'TVthek', 'Radiothek', 'Debatte', 'Österreich', 'Wetter', 'Sport', 'News', and 'ORF.at im Überblick'. Below this is a search bar with the text 'science ORF.at' and a search icon. A secondary navigation bar contains 'Aktuell', 'Forscher/innen schreiben', 'Radio & TV', and 'Kontakt'. The main content area features a large image of a woman covering her face with her hands, looking distressed. Below the image is the article title '„Long Covid“ und seine Unbekannten' under the subheading 'Coronavirus'. The article text discusses symptoms like fatigue and breathing difficulties, and mentions a study by Sarah Wolf from the Austrian Institute for Health Technology Assessment (AIHTA). A 'Teilen' button is visible to the right of the text. The page is dated 'Online seit heute, 12:55 Uhr'.
